

A reminder about addresses:

It's the debtor's obligation to use current addresses when filling out schedules. Over two years ago, the payment addresses for the Employment Department changed, but the notice addresses did not.

The payment addresses should not be used for notice purposes; documents sent there may eventually make their way to the appropriate offices, but that is not a certainty.

Documents sent to the old payment addresses, though, are definitely not being forwarded to Employment.

Current notice addresses are:

Unemployment TAXES owed by employers:

Oregon Employment Department
875 Union Street NE
Salem, OR 97311

Overpayment Recovery (fraud):

Oregon Employment Department
Overpayment Recovery
875 Union Street NE
Salem, OR 97311

Current payment addresses are:

Unemployment TAXES owed by employers:

Oregon Employment Department
Unit 2
P O Box 4395
Portland, OR 97208-4395

Overpayment Recovery (fraud):

Employment/Benefits
Unit 21
P O Box 4395
Portland, OR 97208-4395

Please check your bankruptcy software to be sure that you are not inadvertently using an incorrect address in your schedules.
