

OREGON DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE
CONTACT INFORMATION

The initial point of contact with the Oregon Department of Revenue should always be to the party who filed the proof of claim in the bankruptcy, if the bankruptcy has been filed.

If a question arises prior to a bankruptcy filing, ODR's bankruptcy department can be reached through their general email: DOR_DL_bnktechtm@oregon.gov or by facsimile at: 503-945-8735. Once an inquiry is received, the inquiry goes to all of the bankruptcy technicians for response. The technician assigned to the case will forward a reply.

Note that all faxes should be marked "Attention Bankruptcy" so that the inquiry is delivered to the proper department.
